Profile

Rosie is a highly motivated, goal orientated and conscientious team player with over 12 years' experience working with complex adults and children.

She is an ex-professional athlete who encompasses a strong work ethic, dedication, and commitment to all aspects of her life. She has consistently advanced throughout her career to higher levels of competency and accountability. She has proven to be a strong motivator and leader (such as in her Team Leader role at Headway) and is equally comfortable working independently (such as in her CMA work since 2020). Rosie has exceptional interpersonal communication skills.

Rosie has developed a wide skillset to work with adults and children with brain injury, spinal cord injury and polytrauma, who experience varying cognitive and physical abilities. She establishes and maintains effective working relationships, exhibiting high energy, team pride, and the ability to relate to a wide variety of individuals.

Testimonial

"Rosie brings with her a sound knowledge of psychology and anatomy following her Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology from Canada. She has also worked with complex ABI and TBI clients. She is highly motivated and a keen learner who is reliable and diligent.

In recent years she has worked privately for me as an Occupational Therapist assistant and is able to meet clients and families and carry out the designated work. She has sound knowledge of the safeguarding process and has worked with me in complex cases.

Rosie can co-assist with training and teaching clients and carers with the supervision of a clinician. Rosie has worked for one of my clients as a Personal Assistant and maintained a therapeutic relationship to a very high standard." – Case Manager
