Profile

Sruthi is a highly driven case manager who has been successful in a range of clinical roles for over 10 years, whilst excelling within the assessment and management of acquired brain injury, amputation, and orthopaedic injuries. She has worked extensively with clients with complex physical and psychological conditions, supporting them to achieve their potential through resourceful, coordinated, and clinically-effective rehabilitation plans that are also cost-effective.

Sruthi's background as a specialist Physiotherapist in Neurosciences, has been pivotal in providing her with the expertise required to deliver successful clinical case management of individuals with complex rehabilitation needs. In addition, having worked alongside colleagues in the NHS and local authority Sruthi has developed a robust understanding of statutory health and social care provision. She recognises the critical importance of good communication with the relevant professionals to ensure effective treatment plans and timely delivery of outcomes.

Sruthi has a holistic approach to case management, putting the client's individual needs at the heart of the service, whilst working within any resource constraints. She understands the importance of clear, evidence based reporting and understands the litigation process.

Sruthi is sensitive, kind, and compassionate in her work, and her proactiveness and attention to detail have been particularly commented on by her clients. She is understanding of the wider impact of catastrophic injuries on not only the clients but also their significant others, and the importance of maintaining the integrity of the client's support network through an empathetic and pragmatic approach. As an independent case manager, Sruthi has worked effectively engaging with all stakeholders involved in a timely fashion, and offering flexible solutions to any barriers in rehabilitation, to empower the clients to return as near to their normal lives as able.

Testimonial

"Thank you so much Sruthi, it was great having you here during my worst time of my life. You've kept me safe and well. I appreciate your help, and you and all parties will always be in my prayers. I will contact you should I ever need some help or advice. Take care and thanks again." Client
