Profile

Sarah-Jane prides herself in providing person-centred and adaptable case management. She focuses on clients with a holistic approach and ensures their needs are at the forefront of all decisions.

Sarah-Jane is a dynamic and engaging professional, renowned for her impeccable communication skills and a robust track record in energetic and goal-oriented case management. With a client-centric approach, she is committed to designing and implementing interventions and rehabilitation programs that are tailored specifically to individual client needs, fostering optimal outcomes.

Over the past six years she has developed a deep expertise in handling complex case management scenarios involving both paediatric and adult clients, spanning pre- and post-litigation stages. Her holistic approach combines the strategic management of multidisciplinary teams with the creation and meticulous oversight of comprehensive support packages.

This ensures enhanced wellbeing and rehabilitation prospects for clients, particularly through carefully facilitated property purchases and adaptations tailored to individual needs.

Sarah-Jane excels in connecting clients with activities that resonate with their personal interests, a practice crucial for their psychological and emotional wellbeing. Additionally, her background in Speech Pathology and Psychology equips her with unique insights into the nuanced communication barriers and psychological challenges faced by individuals.
