Profile

Emily is proactive and organised; she is a positive and creative thinker who takes a highly flexible approach with her clients to achieve the outcomes they value. She is a strong advocate for her clients and their families, and highly experienced in drawing together effective care and rehabilitation teams to deliver best outcomes and maximise their potential.

Emily has worked as a case manager since 2009; cases have included adult and adolescent acquired brain injury, complex orthopaedic/polytrauma injuries, spinal injuries, and birth injuries. Working as an occupational therapist in the NHS, charitable and private sectors, Emily developed highly specialist clinical skills in brain injury rehabilitation, including clients with altered levels of consciousness.

Having worked as a Care Expert, Emily has a good understanding of the litigation process and receives instruction from both solicitors and insurers. She is a director with the newly formed Institute of Registered Case Managers (IRCM).

Located in Cornwall with another base in Surrey, Emily is happy to travel as is reasonable and practicable for the client or case.

Testimonial

"Emily is highly professional as a case manager. She is extremely competent. She has an excellent rapport with clients and through her professional expertise is instrumental in promoting their effective rehabilitation and support." Personal Injury Solicitor

"I have known Emily Denny for many years now. She has been with me every step of the way, in the early dark days and then in the brighter, happier times. I have always found Emily professional, empathetic, very knowledgeable and very responsive. She totally gets ABI and has a great relationship with my son. Emily is one of the best ABI case managers out there." Client's Mother

"I have never worked with a Case Manager like Emily Denny who is so skilled at bringing together an MDT and creating successful joined up working around a clients rehab needs" - Occupational Therapist.
