Profile

Kate is a complete care professional. She has excelled in every care role she has had due to an exceptional work ethic and passion for the wellbeing of those in her care.

Her natural ability to connect with children of all abilities has been combined with a dedication to self-improvement, training and understanding how to be better.

Kate can point to a history of working in different types of care roles, beginning her career as a NNEB nursery nurse before rising to a senior position at the National Star College.

A committed advocate for disabled children, Kate worked in challenging environments such as NHS complex care and at the specialist self-harm and eating disorder clinics for the Priory Group.

Kate has experience of liaising with senior management and with medical and legal professionals, has managed teams and dealt with all manner of high-pressure scenarios.

Testimonial

“Kate has an excellent level of knowledge and skills and has a natural ability to communicate with some of the country’s most challenging young people.”

Georgina May, Manager, Newcombe Lodge (Priory Group)

“Kate demonstrates an enthusiastic proactive, upbeat, and can-do approach. A key member of the multidisciplinary team”

Alice Carty, Deputy Manager, National Start College
